

DIGICARE INNOVATION INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSE DIGITAL HEALTH

Transform Community Care at Global Scale

Join the DigiCare Innovation Interdisciplinary Course and help build accessible, equitable community care in oncology, mental health and chronic disease. Developed for those with professional experience, including academics and health care professionals. The course* will help you close competency gaps in digital health.

* Available in multiple languages via your browser's automatic translation from English

Online for global access

Estimated duration of 10 hours at your pace

Learning outcomes based on a competency-based needs assessment

(Digital Health Competencies for Medical Education)

Interactive content with optional resources

Hands-on tasks grounded in real-world healthcare

Quick checks at the end of each module

4 modules, including artificial intelligence in healthcare; human-centred design in digital health, digital identity, safety and security

Free certificate of participation on completing all requirements within 7 weeks

Modules unlock as you go

Connect health and innovation!
Sign up now by scanning the QR code

